In & Over

Overview

In & Over

Tour Italy's beautiful Marche region on the Adriatic Sea on this thrilling seven-day SkyRoute tour. Your stay will see you soaking up the region's culture through its history, art and poetry, nature and cuisine as well as the sky and stars. Sample the local cuisine, explore the birthplaces of some of Italy's most celebrated artists and study the skies from a different observatory every single night of your SkyRoute.

Astronomical delights

A different observatory every night

The In & Over tour has been planned to incorporate a different observatory every night, each in the proximity of the night's hotel.

Memorable sites

Napoleon's castles

Scale the hill to reach an observatory located in the middle of Napoleon's castle. It was built around 1810 to defend the city from Austrian and English attack.

Artistic roots

Your week sees you visit the birthplaces of some of the region's most famous creative talents. From Italian renaissance city Urbino, Jesi home of Raffaello Sanzio who painted Madonna with Child to Pesaro, where Giacomo Rossini, composer of the Barber of Seville, was born. Discover Recanati, home of poet Giacomo Leopardi with a private library of 14,000 books. And even the birthplace of German Emperor Federico II.

Endless landscapes

Sibilla's mountain

The fifth day of your Italian SkyRoute tour takes you to a mountain national park, featuring the fascinating Sibilla's Mountain as well as the source of the River Aso.

Coastal charms

Your SkyRoute culminates with a tour of some of the small, pretty villages built on the coast and up on the hills to defend the nation from the Saracens (from Turkey and Lebanon).
