

Observatory "Paolo Senigalliesi" di Ancona

DESCRIPTION AND GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS

Location:

The observatory is located Pietralacroce place, in Ancona, out but close to city center, on the top of one hill with a view on the sea and the historical monumental part of the city. It is located in a green area to avoid light pollution. The latitude is 43°36' 33" Nord and the longitude is 13°31' 57" East.

Description:

It is an Observatory for public use for students and citizens.

Protection category:

No protection

1. Hierarchical level of resource:

• Level 1: Attractive with some striking feature, able to interest visitors from long distance that had come to the zone by other touristic reasons, or capable to motivate local tourist flows.

2. Tourism demand:

Tourists (Italian and Foreign) during summer period and students, Scouts, Teachers, Families, amateurs

ACCESSIBILITY

1. Accessibility of the resource (universal):

It is full accessible to All

2. Resource Signaling:

Outside.- Road signs to reach the resource (guidance) and to identify the resource (position)

3. Level of accessibility:

Outside (To reach the resource).- Public Transport, private solutions

MARKETING

1. Marketing profile:

Online, <http://www.amastrofili.org/Sezioni/osservatorio.asp>
By A.M.A. Association and at national level

2. Information available of the resource:

Online, brochures, photos: <http://www.amastrofili.org/Sezioni/osservatorio.asp>

VISITS

1. Capacity of the establishment:

Type and number of visits to the resource can be agreed and planned

2. Schedule and Availability for visitors:

Open all year-round/on request

3. Admission:

Free

4. Limitations:

Possible improvements that can be performed.

5. Visit the resource:

Guided tour by A.M.A. Association